ANOTHER STREET FIGHT CASUALTY

MAN KNOCKED UNCONSCIOUS OUTSIDE PUB

By Anders Larsson

anders@tindlenews.co.uk

A POLICE investigation is under way after a fresh incident of night-time violence in Axminster.

A man required hospital treatment after being knocked unconscious in Lyme Street in the early hours of last Saturday morning. Police officers and paramedics were called just before 1am on Saturday.

The location given to police and ambulance was Red Lion, but it is unclear if the people involved had visited the pub or not.

The ambulance service confirmed that one man was treated outside the pub before being taken to the Royal Devon and Exeter Hospital (RD&E).

A police spokesperson said: "Police are investigating an assault in Lyme Street, Axminster, outside the Red Lion, just before 1am on Saturday, April 20th. An argument between two men resulted in one of the men being knocked unconscious.

Taken to hospital

"The injured man was taken to hospital as a precaution. We don't have a description of the offender at this stage."

Anyone with information or observations that may help investigators is asked to call the constabulary switchboard on 101. The incident number is KA/13/206.

Police announced increased patrols and also brought in legislation known as Section 27 under the Violent Crime Reduction Act to prevent outbreaks of night time violence in Axminster after problems at the end of last year.

The town was marred by three violent incidents on Friday, December 22nd, and police responded by bringing in the legislation. It means that police can bar any person they believe pose a risk of disorder from a specified area for a period of up to 48 hours.

Four candidates for county seat

AXMINSTER and district goes to the polls next week to elect a county councillor.

The Axminster seat is currently held by town mayor Andrew Moulding, a Conservative who is seeking re-election.

Councillor Moulding will be challenged by town councillors Paul Hayward (Independent), Rob Jordan (Liberal Democrat) and Axminster deputy mayor Jeremy Walden (Labour).

The election will take place on Thursday, May 2nd with polling at Woodbury Hall, Millwey Community centre and Axminster Guildhall.

The Axminster electoral division includes the parishes of Yarcombe, Membury, Chardstock, All Saints, Dalwood, Shute, Kilmington, Musbury and Hawkchurch.

BIRTHDAY BASH: Gerald Hurford (former chairman), Michael Collier (club president), Mark Herrod (chairman) and Paul Glanvill (chairman of Devon Young Farmers) are about to start the celebrations

Let the celebrations begin!

PAST and present members of an Axminster club have started to celebrate a milestone birthday in earnest.

The history of Axminster Young Farmers' Club goes back to the inaugural meeting in April 1933 when Major Lutterall (president), Walter Wright (club leader), Cyril Gibbens (chairman), Hilda Spiller (secretary) and Mollie Hurford (treasurer) were elected to key posts.

To mark that momentous meeting, past and present members formally started to celebrate the club's 80th anniversary with a get-together in Axminster Guildhall on Saturday.

A series of events are planned throughout the year, and Saturday's event featured speeches from former and current members, a photo display covering Quotes of the week...

“ABIDING memories of the day include the absolute silence as the coffin was carried in an out of the cathedral, broken only by the click of the slow-marching military pall bearers' highly-polished boots. Also, as the Great West Door was opened at the beginning and the end of the service, it creaked, again breaking the silence, and as it was opened those inside St Paul's could hear the cheers of the crowds outside.”

Colyford resident Simon Card OBE, a member of the Conservative Party for more than 50 years, commenting on the funeral service of Baroness Thatcher, which he attended.

“IT IS such an excellent scheme encouraging friendship between people of different cultures and language and, although I struggle severely with my poor French, the process of communicating with host families is incredibly rewarding”

The Reverend John Streeting, Rector of the Axe Valley Mission, after returning from a visit to Axminster's twin town, Douvres la Deliverande.

Tigers fail to raise a team

THERE was great disappointment at Sector Lane on Saturday with Axminster Town failing to raise a team for the trip to face Stoke Gabriel.

Stoke were awarded the win by South West Peninsula league officials and the Tigers deducted four points with a likely fine in addition.

Axminster, currently lying 12th in the division one (east) table, are scheduled to entertain Alphington on Thursday (6.30pm ko) before a trip to lowly Plymstock on Saturday.

The last ever competitive game to be played at Sector Lane will see Seaton Town take on Alphington in the Final of the Axminster Hospital Cup on Sunday, May 12th (3pm kick-off).

Meanwhile, a last minute winner from James Hill earned Seaton Town an impressive 1-0 win at Heavitree SU in the Devon & Exeter Premier division on Saturday. The Greens, unbeaten in 10, could break into the top five with a win at Exeter University on Saturday.

Beer Albion's penultimate league fixture ended in a disappointing 4-0 defeat at relegation-haunted Exmouth Amateurs.

AXMINSTER

Another street fight casualty

A POLICE investigation is under way after a fresh incident of night-time violence in Axminster.

A man required hospital treatment after being knocked unconscious in Lyme Street in the early hours of last Saturday morning. Police officers and paramedics were called just before 1am on Saturday.

The location given to police and ambulance was Red Lion, but it is unclear if the people involved had visited the pub or not.

No to recordings

A TOWN councillor's offer to provide digital recording equipment for a try-out was narrowly defeated.

Axminster town councillor Paul Hayward had tabled a proposal that the council should digitally record its meetings.

This can be done in a number of ways, either through a live webcast or audio or video recordings which are uploaded to a website after meetings.

Councillor Hayward said such a move would increase transparency and be helpful to people who, for various reasons, can't attend meetings.

He also said recordings could be made for "a relatively small cost" and added: "It is something we should wholeheartedly consider.

The proposal, however, lost the vote 5-4, so was not carried.

From the editor's chair Don't waste your vote

THE voters of East Devon go to the polls next week (May 2nd) to elect their county councillors and it is pleasing to report there is a contest in all six electoral divisions in Pulman's Country.

Elsewhere in this week's paper we give details of all the candidates in your local seats in a bid to encourage all those eligible to exercise their vote.

In all but one of the six seats in our area the existing candidate is standing again. Roger Giles has stood down from Ottery St Mary Rural after serving on Devon County Council as an Independent for 20 years, dedicated service which deserves recognition.

There is a general apathy towards politics at all levels, not surprising in view of the behaviour of some of our elected representatives in Westminster.

Whilst politics does come into the running of Devon, generally speaking our county councillors do a good job under difficult circumstances. These days, of course, they get fairly generous expenses but most will argue - with the exception of the cabinet members - they make little from their efforts on our behalf.

At local level, voters very often support the person they know rather than the political party they represent. But it is important that people should go to the polls as it is the only way you can have influence over the direction of the county authority.

In the past, the turn-out in the East Devon divisions has been encouraging; in the last county election in 2009 the percentage vote ranged from a low of 42.3 per cent in Honiton St Michael's to 50.6 per cent in Axminster.

Hopefully, the turn-out on May 2nd will be even more encouraging.

◆ AXMINSTER town councillors have voted against allowing their meetings to be recorded. This newspaper recently asked Seaton Town Council to allow our reporter to record meetings to ensure greater accuracy but it turned into such a farce we decided not to bother.

Council meetings are open to the public and for the life of me I cannot understand why councillors are so reticent in not allowing their meetings to be recorded. What are they afraid of?

SEATON

Public consulted on new seafront

SEATON residents have been given the chance to have their say on designs for the enhancement of Seaton seafront.

Seaton town councillors have joined Seaton's seafront enhancement designer, Clair Fear, over the past week for consultations and drop-ins for the local community to have their say and put their ideas forward.

Various design options have been created for the development, and the public were asked to review and comment on the plans so an overall preferred design can be chosen, and a master plan of proposed works put forward.

Plans for the enhancement aim to provide an attractive, vibrant and practical community space for events, a crossroads leading to Seaton attractions, improved transport connections for the town and improved business opportunities.

Pictured left are town councillors Mark Fisher and Bob Palacio alongside enhancement designer, Clair Fear, at a public consultation at Seaton's square on Saturday, which was well supported by the local community.

There will be another chance to have your say at the final consultation session, which will be held this Sunday (April 28th) from 2pm until 4pm at Fisherman's Gap on the seafront.

FENITON

Woman dies in crash

A FEMALE passenger has died in hospital after a two-car crash near Feniton.

In addition, the male driver of the car was taken to hospital with "serious" injuries.

The accident happened on what was described as "an unclassified road on the approaches to Feniton" at about 9.40pm on Thursday, April 18th.

COLYTON

Awaiting decision on green wedge

COLYTON parish councillors are hopeful that a 172-house development on the green wedge between Colyford and Seaton will be rejected, following the refusal of two similar applications in Feniton.

Speaking at last week's parish council meeting, district councillor Helen Parr said that members may be encouraged by the fact that two developments, for 32 and 59 houses, were recently refused, despite being recommended for approval by officers.

Councillor Parr said the reason for refusal was taken from the National Planning Policy Framework, which was being used for guidance as East Devon's Local Plan was currently out of date, and councillors argued that the developments would not be sustainable.

She said they assumed the applications would now go to appeal and this would be an "interesting test" for the green wedge development, which is still to be considered by district councillors.

Parish councillor Howard West, Mayor of Colyford who is leading the campaign against the development, asked at what point in the system the application was, as he had not heard anything for a while. Councillor Parr it had probably gone to the district valuer to see if it was viable.

As well as 172 houses, the development would include two football pitches, a play area and a new spine road.

SIDMOUTH

Curtain up on revamped Manor

SIDMOUTH'S thriving Manor Pavilion Theatre is dressed to impress as it prepares for the summer season following a £90,000 investment.

Owned and managed by East Devon District Council, the Manor Pavilion has been a much-loved fixture since the early 1970s, when it was first converted from a dance hall to a theatre.

The 277 seat venue and fully licensed bar is now open all year round, boasting a wide variety of weekly and one-night-only productions from amateur and professional companies alike.

The venue enjoys great local support and attracts visitors from all areas of Devon, Somerset and much further afield - a trend that is set to continue following a sweeping refurbishment of the building.

The £90k investment has seen improvements such as a brand new box office, upgraded heating and air-conditioning systems, new disabled toilets, new windows and doors and new lighting, as well as improvements back stage.

A spokesperson for the EDDC said: "These improvements all ensure the theatre is even more appealing than ever for casual theatre-goers and true aficionados.

"This investment shows EDDC's commitment to the venue and the arts in East Devon.

"The Manor Pavilion warmly invites you to visit and experience the charm, hospitality and intimacy of the small but perfectly formed theatre."

As announced last week, the Manor Pavilion is proud to welcome a brand new resident theatre company in the form of Paul Taylor Mills Ltd, who will be presenting the new Repertory Summer Season.

HONITON

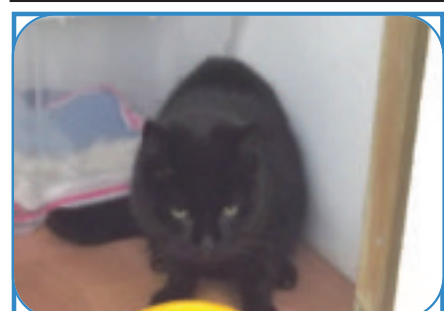

Mental health facility to reopen

HONITON Senior Voice (HSV) has announced a public meeting to give people a chance to find out more about the reopening of a mental health facility for older people.

In January this year, Devon Partnership NHS Trust announced that plans for the reopening of The Bungalow had been signed off.

The meeting will start at 2pm on Tuesday, April 30th in Honiton Methodist Church and HSV has secured the presence of three health bosses - Dr Colm Owens (clinical director, older persons' mental health) Jacqui Mowbray Gould (managing partner older persons mental health) and Donna Bell (community mental health services manager).

All interested organisations and individuals are invited to attend.

AXMINSTER Royal British Legion chairman Dave Warner and Poppy Appeal organiser Yvonne Taylor have presented a framed certificate to Axe Valley Community College.

The certificate was in appreciation of the Axminster college's support for the Poppy Appeal over the last ten years.

Dave and Yvonne attended a recent Year 8 assembly to present the certificate. Dave gave a short and informative talk about the history of the Legion and its current work.

A year of celebration for the young farmers

the 80 years and a buffet.

In the early days of the club, business meetings were held on the first Monday of the month, featuring talks and presentations on farming trends as well as butter making, poultry trussing and farmhouse craft demonstrations.

Although named Axminster Young Farmers' Club, activities were staged in Kilmington until the 1960s.

Following the club's formation, membership quickly reached the 100 mark, with as many as 140 members recorded in 1980.

Following World War Two, farming changed and members had to learn new skills as the horse was replaced by tractor and mechanical machinery was introduced.

Competition between members and other clubs at group and county level has always been very intense and the Axminster club can, for example, boast about being tug-of-war champions six successive years and county public speaking champions four times during a five-year period.

There has also been success at national level, Miss Salter showing the way by winning the 1936 Clean Milking Award at the National Dairy Show in London.

Jeff Wakely was among the first members to win a national scholarship to Australia in 1964 and members have since won scholarships on a regular basis.

In 1972 Bill Newbery was a winner at the Royal Show and Giles Webber represented the club at the national tractor handling competition.

One of the national competitions the girls entered was the Dairy Queen competition.

In 1970 Marilyn Leggg reached the finals which were hosted by the Duke and Duchess of Bedford at Woburn Abbey and was crowned National Dairy Princess.

Charity fundraising has been one of the club's major efforts.

During the Second World War funds were raised for the Red Cross and numerous charities have been supported over the years, with Cancer Research at the top of the list.

In 2004 the club was the first recipient of the Devon RABI Roger Keast Memorial Trophy for having raised most money for charity in 2003.

When the club celebrated its 75th birthday in 2008, membership stood at about 50. At the time, a club spokesperson explained the drop by saying: "During the past decade the number of farmers leaving the industry has gathered pace with the demise of the Milk Marketing Board, the dominance of multi-national companies, a negative approach by the government and the foot and mouth disaster of 2001.

"Club membership has become reliant on young people from outside the industry, something which would have been unheard of 75 years ago.

"Despite this decline there appears to be a brighter prospect ahead with an increasing global demand for higher living standards and the threat of a climate change, farming is again becoming of national importance.

"The Young Farmers movement will continue to meet the challenges ahead and will, as their motto says, produce good farmers, good countrymen and good citizens."

Five years later, current chairman Mark Herrod presides over a boosted membership.

He said: "We currently have 72 members ranging from 14 years of age to 26 years of age.

"I would say that the most significant thing that has happened [over the past five years] is the re-introduction of our show and sale which started up again in 2008 following the foot and mouth outbreak.

"This gives members a chance to have a beef animal, a dairy animal and sheep which they keep for a certain amount of time before they are taken to market once a year to have a show against each other, they are then sold through the market with the members keeping the profit they make on the animal.

"The idea is that it teaches the members how to raise/look after the animals to a certain age and then to have a competition at the end of it."

Charity is high on the agenda, and Mr Herrod said: "This year we are planning on doing an 80-mile bike ride to coincide with the club being 80 years old.

"We also do our Boxing Day dip every year to raise money for charity.

"We have raised £25,543.89 for various charities over the last six years.

"These include St John Ambulance, Help for Heroes, Force, ELF, Cancer Research UK, Children's Hospice South West, Axminster Hospital League of Friends and more."

The club also man a carnival float with a different theme each year, last year's being Jolly Roger.

Mr Herrod said: "I should also mention that we have our summer ball each year, which continues to go from strength to strength and has been sold out in each of the last five years.

"Axminster Young Farmers would like to take this opportunity to thank the many local companies and individuals for their continuous support over the last 80 years. It is very much appreciated.

"This year's summer ball will be held on Friday, June 28th at the Axminster showground.

It will be a Glitz and Glamour theme with local band Area 52 performing.

Tickets and more information are available from Laura Lee on 07714707687.

Easter fun in the countryside

DESPITE the bracing easterly winds over the Easter holidays, young nature lovers have been out in force, keen to seek out wildlife on the East Devon District Council Nature Reserves, improve their nature photography techniques and find out how to attract beneficial insects to their own gardens.

Participants were as busy as the proverbial insects at Making Homes for Bees, resulting in the building of 15 bee houses, which were taken away to be mounted on south facing walls ready for harmless solitary bees to take up residence and lay their eggs in the next few weeks.

The Photography Safari for Children allowed 12 promising young naturalists to develop their creative skills with a camera, using plants and creatures of the Axe Estuary wetlands as inspiration.

Denise Lyon, who brought her children to the event, enthused "What I love about these events is that the children have fun and learn so much at the same time".

Habitats onb the wetlands

Mammals of the Marshes gave 25 people the opportunity to meet small wild animals such as field voles and wood mice up close, to identify them and to discover more about their lifestyles at different habitats on the Wetlands.

A similar event took place the following day at the Knapp Community Nature Reserve right in the heart of Sidmouth, to look at small mammals living in a quite different environment.

Altogether 87 people attended four events arranged by the Countryside team over the school holidays. The organisers would like to thank volunteers Len and Emma Weal for their help with the photography safari and Adrian Bayley for leading Mammals of the Marshes.

Learning about the countryside during the holidays wasn't just for the children – teachers donned their wellies and waterproofs on April 15 for some hands-on practical sessions, in order to understand just how inspirational the Axe Estuary Wetlands can be as an outdoor classroom.

As it is widely recognised in the national press that we need to encourage children to reconnect with nature, EDDC's Countryside Team and Devon Curriculum Advisor David Weatherly have produced a new teaching resource pack to aid the teachers (who came from primary and secondary schools from all over East Devon, Exeter and Somerset) in learning about rivers, how they work, and their importance in our environment.

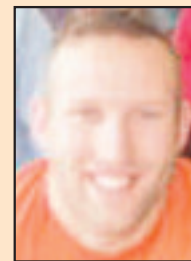

If you haven't yet seen EDDC's popular events guide, it can be accessed online at <http://www.eastdevon.gov.uk/countryside>

Grizzly runner's £1,300 for centres

A BEER man's gruelling Grizzly exploits raised a total of £1,300 for NHS dementia centres in Devon.

By running the tough Grizzly race, Chris Driver (pictured) raised £650 for the Rowan and Linden centres in Ottery St Mary and the Conybeare and Willow units in Axminster.

He works in Exeter for drinks distributor Tradetam, which agreed to match the figure he raised – taking the total to £1,300.

Chris, who is a member of Axe Valley Runners, has since visited the Rowan and Linden centres to find out more about the support they offer to people with dementia, anxiety or depression or who are socially isolated.

He said: "I found the run tougher than last year as the weather was so cold."

"I was delighted to receive so much support and am really pleased to help such a good cause. Hopefully I can help again in the future."

Gaynor Appleby, team leader for the centres, said: "We would like to thank Chris for taking on the challenge of The Grizzly and raising such a great amount along with his employers at Tradetam."

"The money will help us further enhance the experience of people with dementia, including by buying new reminiscence activities and books from the Alzheimer's Society to inspire them and engage them in conversation."

Gaynor and her team will collect an award for innovation and best practice at the Community Hospitals Association's annual conference at the Marriott Worsley Park Hotel and Country Club in Manchester in May.

Chris, 27, ran The Grizzly in honour of his grandparents, Betty and the late Ron Russell.

A SUPPORT group for people affected by recent redundancies at Axminster Carpets will hold another meeting.

The meeting will take place in Axminster Guildhall on Thursday, April 25th from 10.30am-12noon.

Support group member Tim Coath said: "This will be an informal meeting following the first one a month ago.

"Tea and coffee will be available and we hope it will provide an opportunity for everyone involved to catch up and exchange tips and experiences on their progress."

Church spring sale

AXMINSTER United Reformed Church's spring sale will take place on Thursday May 9th. The sale will run from 9.30am-12noon and refreshments and light lunches will also be available.

Council say 'no' to recording meetings

A TOWN councillor's offer to provide digital recording equipment for a try-out was narrowly defeated.

Axminster town councillor Paul Hayward had tabled a proposal that the council should digitally record its meetings.

This can be done in a number of ways, either through a live webcast or audio or video recordings which are uploaded to a website after meetings.

Councillor Hayward said such a move would increase transparency and be helpful to people who, for various reasons, can't attend meetings.

He also said recordings could be made for "a relatively small cost" and added: "It is something we should wholeheartedly consider."

"The technology is very reasonable with crystal clear quality."

bate, but councillor Douglas Hull said the cost involved was not "relatively small".

Others felt that whatever the cost was, the money could be spent on more pressing needs.

The demand for digital recordings and technical aspects were also debated.

Councillor Hayward offered to purchase the equipment with his own money and make it available for a trial run.

Ian Hall, who has since resigned from the council, seconded the proposal, saying: "Maybe a trial session on a sub-committee, for example, so we can explore and investigate it."

The proposal, however, lost the vote 5-4, so was not carried.

■ NARROW DEFEAT: Councillor Hayward's proposal lost 5-4.

Carpet ceremony cements twinning

ANGLO-French relations blossomed when a carpet from Axminster was formally inaugurated in a French manor house.

The inauguration was described as "the highlight" of Axminster Twinning Association's visit to Douvres-la-Deliverande, Normandy, France.

Axminster twinningers arrived on Thursday, April 11th and enjoyed the extended weekend trip, returning to the UK on Sunday, April 14th.

David Gale, the twinning association's information officer, said: "Our members were once again warmly and enthusiastically welcomed by our hosts with delicious food, fine wines and excellent company."

"Various trips were organised during our stay, which included a guided tour of the ancient port of Honfleur and another to a chocolate factory."

"Saturday evening was spent enjoying a very convivial meal with our hosts in the local community centre, with entertainment provided by members of Axminster who treated the French to their rendition of Widcombe Fair."

"However, the highlight of the visit was the inauguration of an Axminster carpet. "The carpet is an exact copy of the first carpet made by Thomas Whitty in 1755. There are only a few in existence, one was made for Prince Charles and is in Clarence House."

"The carpet will hang on a wall in La Barroirie de Douvres, a 13th century Manor house which has been carefully restored and is now used as a place of reception for private and public events."

"The inauguration and viewing was followed by a reception in La Barroirie."

Axminster mayor Andrew Moulding gave a speech in what was described as "very good French".

He thanked his hosts for their invitation and congratulated them on the excellent itinerary.

He recollected that he had welcomed a number of young French people to Axminster in the past year and hosted a cricket match in Taunton.

"Also, last year, he greeted a group of French cyclists who were joined by Axe Valley Pedallers."

They visited Axminster Carpets to see the carpet they had acquired and take it to Douvres."

Problems resolved

Councillor Moulding was pleased to announce that some of the problems at Axminster Carpets had been resolved and that its famous name will continue.

He also stated that it was appropriate that such a magnificent carpet should now be displayed in the splendid building and mark a strong relationship between Axminster and Douvres."

The next visit of the Douvraise will be in June, when they will organise a stall selling Normandy produce at Axe Vale Festival."

Canoe club unveils new facilities

by Laura Goldsbury Noy
laura@pemedi.co.uk

MEMBERS of Axe Vale Canoe Club gathered in the sunshine for the official opening of their refurbished clubhouse and facilities.

Held last Saturday, members - past and present - were joined by local councillors including East Devon Council CEO Mark Williams and Councillor Sara Randall Johnson, as well as Simon Ridd from Sport England and Michael Sims from the British Canoe Union.

The project to improve the canoe club began in 2011, with a new boat store and, since, the clubhouse has been expanded vastly, including the addition of four new changing and shower rooms being built.

Over the years, it is estimated that the costs of the refurbishments have come to a total of around £120,000 with funding coming from Sport England's 'inspired facilities' scheme in conjunction with the 2012 Olympics, the British Canoe Union, club fundraising and local businesses.

Prior to the official opening ceremony, chairman, Tash Khan-Davis, thanked the many who had attended and addressing the huge crowd of supporters.

He said: "These new facilities will make a big difference to the many users of the club, including local junior schools in East Devon."

"Every year we have over 160 young children take part in day long taster sessions on the estuary to learn about the local environment and have some fun on the water. I would like to thank Mark Williams, CEO of EDDC, for his encouragement, support and funding."

"We are very fortunate to share our patch with the yacht club who have worked closely with us to encourage young people to take part in activities such as sailing and canoeing on this beautiful coastline of Britain."

"I would also like to applaud Sport England and the British Canoe Union for supporting us with their funding and providing facilities that not only will ensure the future of our local athletes but will help to build our community and create new friendships."

Mr Khan-Davis also thanked the many committee members and people who contributed to the project including Graham and Alexa Baker, Colin Schofield, James Sedgwick, Andrew Hardwick of Axminster Tesco, Infradig builders and all the club members who gave up their time and expertise.

Following the speech a special presentation was made to three members of the Axe Canoe Club committee for their input into the project: kayak leader, Phil Rowsell; project manager, Chris Cullen and engineering advisor, Dave Vining.

The trio of hardworking committee members each received a framed photograph in appreciation of their work.

Simon Ridd of Sport England and Michael Sims of the British Canoe Union carried out the official ribbon cutting ceremony.

On cutting the ribbon, Mr Ridd said: "Everyone has done so well to get resources for funding and the new facilities look really brilliant."

"Our motto is 'building a sporting future' and we like to invest in community sport and that is exactly what the Axe Vale Canoe Club is about - using the buildings, getting local people active and getting as many as possible out on the water, getting a real sporting experience."

Guests to the opening afternoon then enjoyed celebrations with a tour round the new clubhouse and refreshments.

Axe Vale Canoe Club has 120 members of all ages, from 12-years-old up, and is located within the grounds of the yacht club by Seaton Harbour.

The club offers a wide variety of activities and introductory courses are offered every summer from May.

Fundraisers say thank you

A FUNDRAISING family is saying a big thank you to the people of Seaton for helping them combat 'Rag Doll Illness'.

Evelyn Annies has raised almost £300 on the occasion of her 80th birthday for the Myasthenia Gravis Association (MGA), adding it to the more than £400

by Chris Denne
chris@pemediia.co.uk

raised by her late husband Ray.

The fundraising resulted in the purchase of two spirometers used to help measure symptoms in people suffering from the rare neurological disease Myasthenia Gravis (MG) – the so-called 'Rag Doll Illness'.

Now Evelyn and her daughter Lyn Hatch have pledged a year of fundraising to combat MG, which causes sudden acute muscle weakness in sufferers.

Lyn – who suffers from MG – can find herself suddenly unable to use her hands, walk, or even open her eyes. Sufferers have been known to fall down in the street only to be mistaken for someone with drink or drug related problems, meaning Lyn is too scared to venture out alone.

In acute cases patients need an artificial respirator to assist breathing.

While treatments to combat the symptoms of the disease have improved, the condition is poorly understood and there is still no cure.

When Lyn, who lives in Bridport, was diagnosed with MG five years ago, she was told she was the first person diagnosed in the town for 30 years. She had to give up her job as a medical receptionist and has been unable to work since.

Now the 52-year-old – whose 33-year-old daughter also lives with the disease – is teaming up with her mum Evelyn to carry on the fundraising efforts.

They are busy planning events throughout the coming year – including a bingo evening, quiz night, and open garden with cream teas – to bring in vital funds.

Lyn said: "We want to say a huge thank you to everyone who was kind enough to donate money to the MGA."

"The money came from both Seaton and Bridport and we wanted people to see how the money is being spent."

Drum circle launches in Seaton

A NEW group celebrating the sounds of drumming is proving popular in Seaton.

Passionate local drummers Helen Rogers and Sue Althorpe decided to set up their very own 'drum circle,' after seeing little provision for drumming in the local area.

With over 20 drummers already regularly attending the group which meets twice a month at Seaton Town hall.

The group have been exploring rhythms from around the world using hand drums, the African djembe and the Middle Eastern doumbke.

The group's reputation is already spreading fast with drummers from Ottery St Mary, Sidmouth, Axminster and other towns in the area joining in.

Organiser Helen Rogers said: "No experience is necessary, just passion and enthusiasm and all ages are welcome."

We even have spare drums if people want to come and give it a try.

For more information, contact Sue on 01297 598220.

Beer Rainbows open evening

BEER Rainbows will be holding a special open evening on Sunday, April 28th with the hope to increase support for their group and gain new young members.

The group, which runs for girls aged five to seven, has become increasingly in danger of closing due to a lack of members.

Leaders and organisers hope that the open evening will give the group the boost it needs to stay alive.

The open evening will be held from 3:45pm until 5pm and will showcase the various skills and activities that Rainbows can enjoy, welcoming any potential new members and anyone interested in helping or volunteering.

Leader Tracey Hansford said: "The 1st Beer Rainbows are absolutely desperate for girls and for leaders and we hope that the open event will encourage more young people from Beer and the surrounding area to join in the group."

"We really want to save this unit, but with numbers so low, and a lack of adult leaders, we may be forced to close, and cancel the pack all together."

"Anyone who is interested in coming along can call me on 07779 830692 or email tracey.hansford28@gmail.com."

"Any adult volunteers who are interested in helping with the group can trust that I will provide as much help and support to them as they need."

Axminster candidates

FOUR candidates are standing in the forthcoming elections to represent the Axminster area on Devon County Council.

Pulman's View asked all the candidates to provide a brief statement on where they stand on the key issues the area faces and what they'd hope to achieve if elected.

PAUL HAYWARD
Independent candidate

I am seeking election as your Independent candidate this May as I passionately believe that traditional party politics have no place in local government, where critical decisions should be made on the strength of their benefit and significance to the people of Axminster, not simply as a result of a deal between political allies to suit some higher agenda.

Our town has been dealt a tremendous blow in recent months and the time has come for us to fight for a better, brighter, more prosperous future for our community.

Better job opportunities, schooling, transport infrastructure; better facilities for young and old alike; improved retail growth and a cast-iron policy of sustained, affordable and environmentally conscious development that grows in tandem with our needs, our aspirations and our town's ability to cope with the challenges that such development will undoubtedly bring.

Please vote Independent, please vote Paul Hayward on May 2nd.

ROB JORDAN
Liberal Democrats

Rob Jordan moved to Raymond's Hill three years ago after a long career in civil engineering that saw him work in the UK as well as the Far East and Middle East.

For example, he lived in Hong Kong for more than 10 years and spent 20 years in Chester before moving here.

He returned to politics two years ago when he won a seat on Axminster Town Council, having previously served on Chester

City Council. His time on Chester City Council included a spell as environment portfolio holder.

This role got him involved with waste issues and so on, and suited him well as he is a former environmental consultant.

Mr Jordan said: "I came to Devon to retire and seek better health, which I'm pleased to say I have found. I've had a renaissance and got back into the fray."

He has also served as a school governor in the past. His top priorities for the local area include, for example, getting development planning right, supporting local industry, the provision of good quality affordable housing, promoting green tourism in the Axe Valley, stopping premature development of the old magistrates' court site, the provision of a new health centre.

ANDREW MOULDING
Conservatives

Andrew was born in Axminster and has lived in the area for most of his life and directed his own company in Axminster for 24 years.

He retired recently, following 16 years working for Somerset County Cricket Club.

Andrew is president of Cloakham Lawn Sports Centre, chairman of Axminster Community Enterprise, a member of the board of the Axminster Heritage Committee and patron of ARC Bereavement Service.

He is also vice-chairman of the Active Devon Sports Board. Andrew is a town councillor of 25 years standing and is currently Mayor of Axminster.

Andrew has represented

Axminster Town on East Devon District Council for 25 years and is currently deputy leader.

Andrew has been Devon County Councillor for the Axminster division since 2009 and holds three vice-chairmanships at County Hall.

Andrew is delighted that in the past four years the Conservative controlled council has become more efficient, with no increase in council tax for three years and reduced the council's debt by nearly £90 million.

If elected for a further term, Andrew would support the completion of superfast broadband – particularly in rural areas – campaign for better road and rail links and work for more investment in care for dementia sufferers.

JERRY WALDEN
Labour

I have lived in Axminster for over 30 years, and currently run my own food manufacturing and wholesale business.

I have been a member of Axminster Town Council for 15 years and I am a volunteer at Axminster Job Club.

There are several interlinked challenges facing our town over the coming years.

With so many carpet workers seeking employment we must do all we can to encourage new employers to come into the town.

This means raising the profile of Axminster at every level. The reorganisation of the NHS may mean many changes to our hospital and medical practice.

Some may be good, but we cannot tolerate any decrease in services; and the staff who work there must be treated properly.

The county council has a vital role in overseeing and scrutinising the new commissioning board; we must not let this task slip.

The development of Axminster and the creation of a new relief road will help us move into the 21st century as a thriving town.

We need the county council to assist in this and to push for central funding for new infrastructure.

I believe I would be uniquely placed to champion the interests of the people of Axminster.

For the last two years I have been the Mayor of Seaton and it has been a pleasure working with new-dedicated councillors who look to the future and promotion of the Seaton Coastal area.

In Seaton we have just employed our own part-time dog warden, probably the only town council in England, because residents wanted something done about the dog mess.

We also reduced our Council Tax demand whilst increasing services as we attracted grants of £50,000. These include the £20,000 that came from the initial meeting in Seaton that will lead to the promoting of the Jurassic coast as a destination.

It is these principles that I would use in representing you as your county councillor.

JIM KNIGHT Conservatives

I have represented Seaton as a councillor for many years at all levels; I have been town mayor three times and deputy town mayor six times.

In my time I have helped many people within the town and helped many organisations by raising funds as a member and chairman of Seaton Phoenix.

I have supported Axe Valley Runners as their president since 1997. My biggest achievement was to have the Pink Hippo Nursery built with full funding from the government.

As the county member for Seaton Coastal for the last four years I have done my best to look after all the parishes with their highways, footpath and flooding issues once I was made aware of them or picked them up on my monthly tours of the Seaton Coastal area.

I would very much like to ask the residents to give me the chance to continue the work I do at Devon County Council like inspecting the four children's care and respite homes as an Ofsted 33 inspector.

Speaking up for Seaton Coastal on education and employment and all other issues that are of major concern to the residents of Seaton Coastal; if I am re-elected I will again work tirelessly for the benefit of all the residents and businesses within the Seaton Coastal division.

STEPHEN WILLIAMS Labour

I live in Seaton and have been a supervisor for the Royal Navy at RNAS Yeovilton.

I have two sons who are 30 and 18 years of age. I have been a member of the Labour Party since I was 20 and I am now a trained representative for the Unite union.

I am passionate about the NHS and education, so the recent cuts and privatisations have angered me.

I believe if we don't do something soon to stop shareholders making a profit out of your health it will be too late and the NHS will be lost for you and our children.

Since the present government cancelled the 'Building Schools for the Future' programme introduced by Labour, some of Devon's children sit in class rooms which are put to shame by the standards of other European countries.

WARWICK KNOWLES UKIP

The Seaton Coastal area has a prized asset, being part of the UNESCO Heritage Coastline: a gift for tourism, the hospitality industry and small traders.

The new supermarket is now fact, but rather than being a threat it is an opportunity for small businesses to 'up their game'. (Note how Tiverton and Cullompton are responding.)

I want to support your efforts where I can.

It is important that county and local councils do not undo your efforts with traffic restrictions and parking charges that drive customers away.

Why vote for UKIP in Council elections? UKIP believes that elected councillors must put their communities first, not be slaves to party politics.

Like you, I am resentful that so much of our taxes is given to the EU, which could be far better spent at home.

I have run a graphic design consultancy (now retired). I am a member of the Federation of Small Businesses, chairman of a local history society and enjoy holidays in Branscombe.

A late Easter treat in Colyford

■ CHILDREN from Colyton enjoyed a late Easter party last weekend at St Michael's Chapel of Ease. Despite the poor weather, many children attended with their parents, although the outdoor Easter egg hunt and games had to be cancelled. Instead, children enjoyed indoor games and a quiz, followed by afternoon tea and an entertainer. However, the youngsters didn't miss out on their eggs they would have found on the hunt, which were given to them as party favours at the end of the afternoon.

Colyton sisters have the chop for charity

FOUR sisters from Colyton are to sacrifice their long locks for charity.

The Fouracre sisters are to have their hair chopped on Saturday, April 27th to raise awareness and funds for Epidermolysis Bullosa (EB), with their hair also being donated to create children's wigs.

Children born with the genetic condition EB will suffer throughout their lives with blistering and shearing of the skin and internal linings from the gentlest friction, often from simple day-to-day activities. Children suffering from this disease need constant care and support.

Whilst considerable progress has been made in recent years in understanding EB and identifying the genes that cause the condition, there is as yet no effective treatment or cure.

The hair-chopping event will start at 9.30am on Saturday, April 27th at St Andrew's Church Sunday School Building or, if the weather is good, outside on the church green. Coffee will be served and there will also be a cake stall, raffle and music.

The girls will have their hair chopped at 10.30am by hairdressers from Holly's Hair Boutique in Honiton.

The funds raised will go to the charity DEBRA, which supports research into the cause and treatment of EB.

To find out more about DEBRA visit www.debra.org.uk or to sponsor or support the girls contact Hannah Lawton (nee Fouracre) on 01404 47648 or visit the Just Giving website at www.justgiving.com/hannah-lawton

The sisters and their friends have already raised over £2,500 for DEBRA and hope to reach £5,000.

■ COLYFORD WI raised just over £500 at a nearly-new and jumble sale last weekend.

The event was held in Colyford Memorial Hall, where stalls of clothes, bric-a-brac and more were set up.

There was also a raffle and members of the WI were kept busy in the kitchen, serving homemade cakes (pictured right) and refreshments.

President Margaret Nicholson said the total raised was "brilliant"

■ THE Seaton Trefoil Guild held their annual coffee morning and table-stop sale at Colyton Town Hall on Saturday. Each year the fundraiser is held for the group's chosen charity of the year, with this year's making over £400 for the Devon Freewheelers.

■ MOUTHFUL: The spices have started to work

■ SIGNED UP: Daniel Passmore and Claire Denslow have agreed to the terms of the challenge

Two brave eaters take on mega-hot burger challenge

by Anders Larsson
anders@tindlenews.co.uk

DANIEL Passmore can proudly say "been there, done that, got the t-shirt" after becoming only the second person to triumph when tackling an Axminster restaurant's Heatwave Burger Challenge.

Maybe home advantage played a part as Mr Passmore works where the challenge took place, Route 66.

Proprietors Kirk and Gina King invite customers to finish off a violently spicy burger dish in 12 minutes, with a t-shirt and a place on the Route 66 wall of fame up for grabs.

In addition to the 12-minute rule, any challenger who make it that far must remain at the table for three minutes before being allowed a soothing glass of milk.

The dish includes a chicken breast marinated in hot sauce with naga bhut jolokia pepper, one of the hottest chilli peppers in the world according to Mr King – and the accompanying fries are tossed in fajita spices.

Mr King explained the idea of the challenge by saying: "It is an American restaurant and they do a lot of food challenges in America, and we watch a lot of man versus food programmes."

Two challengers tried their luck on Thursday, April 18th – Route 66 staff member Daniel Passmore, and Pulman's View staff member Claire Denslow.

Challengers have to sign a waiver that Route 66 will not be held liable for any ill effects.

By signing the waiver, challengers also acknowledge that they are in equal parts "stupid, brave and insane".

Traders' leader Shane Morgan was also going to have a go but withdrew, fearing he would be unable to honour work commitments the following day and saying that he is neither stupid, brave or insane.

He also stressed that he had been press-ganged into the challenge in the first place.

Mr Passmore and Mrs Denslow went ahead, though.

Mr Passmore put in a brave performance and won the t-shirt.

Mrs Denslow, who was the first woman to take the challenge, was making impressive progress but had to withdraw with less than two minutes remaining.

She described the experience as "vile".

Route 66 management, however, was so impressed that she was awarded a t-shirt despite the failed attempt.

Mr Passmore said: "It was horrible and painful, something I would never do again."

About 20 people have taken the challenge, the only other one to have succeeded is a customer named Dave Carter – who ran a Marathon before tackling the spicy dish.

"This year we will be helping to celebrate the event at Axminster Arts Café and encouraging members of the public as well as tai chi practitioners to join us in some simple tai chi and chi kung exercises that are suitable for all to do, both standing and seated."

Phoenix Ladies enthralled by talk on African lion park

BUSINESS at the April meeting of Axminster Phoenix Ladies' Club was short and sweet, so members were able to enjoy a visual quiz identifying herbs.

The ladies proved to be keen gardeners so it was impossible to spot a winner as so many hands went up to answer each question.

Members received advance notice that there would be an open meeting in June.

A presentation was given by Joyce West on her volunteering holiday in Zimbabwe called "Walking with Lions". She began with a talk before a presentation of photos from her trip.

In 1972 there were approximately 230,000 lions in Zimbabwe, by 1995 there were 23,000. Faced with these facts a third generation South African rancher decided to do something about it and opened Antelope Park in Gwera. The object was to save orphaned and injured lions and eventually to form new prides.

The park itself has many huts placed around a lake, in which paying guests get a taste of "back to nature". But for Joyce and the other volunteers the huts were very basic. For instance, there was only one shower out back, open to the elements and monkeys in the trees above would throw things at them whilst they were showering.

The volunteers were made up mostly by gap year girls or girls training to work with animals.

Joyce thought a good idea was to bring loads of tennis balls for the lion cubs to play with. She packed them so tightly into her luggage bag that when asked to open her bag at customs they all flew out everywhere.

After that embarrassment she found out at the park that the cubs were only allowed "natural to the environment" objects. However, the volunteer girls had fun playing with them and the balls were given to a local orphanage before Joyce left.

The main duty of the girls and Joyce was to prepare carcasses into suitably sized pieces then feed them to the lions - not a very popular job. They wore masks with lavender to try and disguise the smell.

During the walk with the lion cubs, all mannerisms and characteristics were noted then put onto a computer at the end of each day so that the information given would help find suitable companions to form a new pride. For example, a lioness cub with patience might make a good mother, another might make a good hunter, etc. Five lions are needed to make a pride.

Paying guests may pay thousands of dollars to walk with lions but with 97 lions in the park it does cost a lot.

Lions must go through four stages before a pride is formed. They must prove they can survive in the wild, which is done by putting a lone lion in a large enclosure with live prey such as a hyena.

Mugabe insists that they apply for permission before they can release a pride.

Members were enthralled with Joyce's stories and could have listened for many hours. A vote of thanks was given by Margaret Weston.

Next month, the speaker will be Pam Ladd explaining Tai Chi at the United Reformed Church Hall on May 8th at 2.30pm.

Flowers and fruit at Seaton art group

CHRISTINE Russell returned by popular demand to Seaton & District Art Society to give a talk on how to paint with water mixable oil colours using a palette knife.

Christine's still life painting of flowers and fruit was much admired by members of the society, many of whom were encouraged to have a go at using a palette knife for the first time instead of a brush.

Christine, having re-arranged the flowers on the table to create a satisfactory composition, worked quickly sketching the outline with a brush, applying the paint thinly onto the prepared canvas.

Her skill in then applying the oil paints using a palette knife seemed to the audience to be effortless.

The blade of the knife must be flexible so that you can push the paint around on the canvas but the blade needs to be continually wiped as otherwise the colours can lose their sharpness.

By dragging the knife down Christine achieved the folds in the fabric, and by curving the blade she gave depth to the petals.

Remember that the spaces are as equally important as the subject. Try half closing your eyes to find the irregular shapes in the spaces.

Christine worked from dark to light colours, keeping the colours strong even the zinc white. To avoid the oranges looking as if they were floating, Christine advised the audience to add shadow on the orange as well as on the cloth under the orange.

Christine was unable to finish the painting in the allocated time but the members were nonetheless delighted with the result and thanked her for another lively demonstration.

The next monthly meeting will be on May 6th when the society will welcome Tony Paul who will give a talk and demonstration on the "Three Stages of Watercolours".

This event will be held in the usual venue, Seaton Town Hall, from 2pm to 4 pm. New members and visitors are welcome.

East Devon Women's Institutes ROUND UP

COLYTON

COLYTON WI President, Brenda Clark, welcomed all members to the group's April meeting, particularly honorary life member, Nicky Ellis.

Members were assured that Ann Widdecombe would be speaking at the council meeting in Torquay on Wednesday, April 17th. They were also reminded of the spring group meeting at Axmouth on Monday, May 13th.

The tealight submitted by Jacky Roberts Wake would be put forward for the competition at the group meeting.

There was a selection of jumpers, blankets and teddies on display, all destined for the orphanage in Zimbabwe. The teddy, made by Teresa Hattam, came first, with those by Jean Hutton and Joan McDougall coming second and third.

The competition for next month is "Joyce's Competition" and this year it is a notelet in any medium.

Members voted in favour of the resolution to be discussed at the forthcoming National Annual General Meeting in Cardiff. This was to "Save our Shops" and to work to end the decline of our high streets.

After tea, the speaker Patricia Lowther told members the story of her family's emigration to South Africa in the 1950s. She was thanked by Vee Skea.

There were many beautiful flowers displayed for "Flower of the Month". Those belonging to Teresa Hattam, Joy Burley and Joan McDougall came first, second and third.

The president reminded members that the May meeting was the annual meeting.

SEATON

THE April meeting of Seaton WI was held on April 16th at the Methodist Church Hall.

A big thank you was given to everyone who baked cakes for the stalls at the Lions Day and the Grizzly and to all those who helped at both events and braved the weather.

After tea and biscuits members enjoyed a talk by Anna Sutherland intriguingly called "Every Woman Should Have...". It was a catalogue of ideas of what women need to get them through life - a thought provoking, emotional and very amusing insight.

Flower of the month results; 1st Amy Guard, 2nd Ann Attridge, 3rd Jan Probert. Competition results: 1st Mary Fone, 2nd Ann Attridge, 3rd Zelma Lindsay-Smith.

The president invited members to consider joining the committee, as several ladies are retiring from their posts and fresh volunteers with new ideas are needed.

It is hoped there will be lots of willing candidates at the annual general meeting at 2.15pm on Tuesday, May 21st.

THORNCOMBE

THORNCOMBE WI held its annual general meeting on April 9th.

Members thanked Barbara Roberts, the treasurer, for her superb work, and unanimously adopted the accounts for the year.

The annual report was presented by Nora Arnold, who gave a resumé of meetings held and outings arranged during the past year, and the president thanked Nora for her hard work as secretary, and her committee and the WI members for their loyal support.

An interesting programme had been arranged for the coming year, and it had been decided to hold a membership drive to encourage new members to join Thorncombe WI.

The committee were willing to re-stand for election and were voted in en bloc. Julia Snellcock was once again elected president.

After adopting the Dorset Federation estimated budget for 2013/14, members enjoyed social time with cheese and wine.

The next meeting will be held on Tuesday, May 14th at 7.30pm in Thorncombe Village Hall, when Catherine and Mark Jones will be speaking about "Dinner Party Desserts".

Bring along your oldest recipe book for the competition. New members and visitors will be most welcome. Contact Julia Snellcock on 01460 30135.

ALL SAINTS & DISTRICT

ALL SAINTS & District WI's April meeting was the annual general meeting and, after all the usual business, members voted on the resolution.

The resolution was "Tackling the decline of our high streets and town centres", and members voted to agree that the resolution should be discussed and voted on at the National Federation AGM in Cardiff on June 1st, which three members from All Saints & District will attend.

While having refreshments and a chat members were challenged to complete a quiz. The results of the pretty spoon and flower of the month competition were announced.

The next meeting on May 14th at 7.30pm will be a talk about "Bristol Blue Glass", given by Mr Francis Burroughs. New members very welcome.

AWLISCOMBE

JERUSALEM was sung and over 40 members attended the April meeting of Awliscombe WI.

The president Olive Price reported that the Easter bingo was a great success. Rosemary Sprigg read the correspondence - many members are attending the group meeting at Broadhembury and a coach trip to Cockington in May.

As the speaker was unable to attend, one of the group's members, Angie Garner, stepped in and gave a talk on "Finding Your True Colours", wearing them with confidence and what colours to wear to look your best. She was thanked by Rita Tyers.

There were many competition entries for "A Spring Posy" - 1st Rota Tyers, 2nd Marjorie Madge, 3rd Georgette Jameson. Flower of the Month went to Heather Penwarden.

Tea hostesses were Nora Coleman, Dora Hargraves, Jenny Holt and Mally Pickerell. The raffle was organised by Maureen Perry and Pauline Ford.

The evening concluded with a quiz named "Guessing the Prime Ministers", organised by Heather Penwarden.

Leading Carpet Broker Covering
Devon, Dorset & Somerset

2013 marks 30 successful years of saving money for the customers of Wells Carpet Brokers.

The business was formed in 1983 and is based on selling well-known carpet brands at prices among the very lowest in the country.

It is not only price that makes Wells Carpet Brokers stand out from the crowd, but selection also. Rather than simply offering the products of just one manufacturer, the Company has almost every famous make displayed in their showroom, which probably constitutes the best selection in the UK, comprising over 8000 carpets.

Good product knowledge is central to the policy of the firm and the dedicated team of four, Anne Wells, Michael Coddington, Neville Hitchman and Carol Cummings have between them many years of experience in the carpet industry. Their aim is to provide the best service possible.

The Company believe that every customer has a right to have the best possible choice when selecting new flooring and this choice has grown over the years. The selection of carpets is endless in their beautiful, bright showroom. Don't be put off by the fact their showroom is immaculate. There are budget ranges from £4.50 sq. m. and you can choose from the ever popular 80% wool/20% nylon twist pile from £12.95 to sumptuous wool carpets that can have hand carved borders.

For easy maintenance there are man made, stain resistant carpets that can be cleaned with bleach! For the eco warrior, they have samples of carpets of which the fibres are made with recycled plastic bottles or corn and are so stain resistant that even by laying in a Rhino enclosure, it wasn't stained.

If carpets aren't your thing, then they have plenty of other options for you. Cushioned vinyl, Karndean flooring that looks very much like real wood or tiles, engineered woods, laminates, matting, lino. Just about anything that will go on a floor. Working alongside a team of professional carpet fitters, they can expertly install any of the above floorings for you. Wells Carpet Brokers also have one of the largest stocks of flooring accessories in the area that include carpet gripper, metal door bars or oak thresholds and of course underlays.

Price checks are an important factor in Company policy and double figure savings in £'s per sq metre have been recorded.

Pop along to their showroom and take a look. If you can't make up your mind in the showroom, they will let you borrow sampling to take home.

Myths that label unemployed 'scroungers' are totally unjust

■ SINCE early March, Axminster Job Club has averaged 75 visitors a week including many made redundant by Axminster Carpets.

My concern is that there may still be people out there who are not yet accessing the provision which is rightfully theirs because of the stigma attached these days to people in receipt of benefits.

A major report launched last month by four leading churches shows how evidence and statistics have been misused, misrepresented and manipulated to create myths that blame and stigmatise the most vulnerable in society.

Did you know for instance that only three per cent of the national welfare budget goes to the unemployed and that only 0.8 per cent of all benefit expenditure is claimed fraudulently?

Myths that label unemployed people as scroungers are totally unjust and untrue and, in Axminster of all places, sadly the harsh reality of redundancy cannot be denied.

LIZ LYNN,
Chairman, Axminster Job Club

'Selfish' dog owner still not picking up after pet

■ HOW much longer do we have to put up with the selfish dog owner that still does not pick up after their pet in our town of Axminster.

They cannot be true dog lovers, with all the publicity regarding the health hazard etc. Over the years surely the message should have got through by now.

While I am on this subject again, how about the owners who do pick up but throw the bag anywhere when no one is looking?

Searching for long-lost brother in East Devon

■ PLEASE help find my brother.

My father's name is Harrold Dodd. He met Yvonne in Butlin's holiday camp in Minehead around 1968. Both my father and Yvonne moved to Coventry.

I believe my brother's name is David and he will be around 45 years old.

Yvonne returned to Beer in Devon shortly after separating from my father.

If anyone has any information, please email me on denise19730@hotmail.com

Pulman's View from the churches

With NIGEL SPELLER

JOHN Streeting, Rector for the Axe Valley Mission Community, writes:

The Mayor and I, along with a party of nearly 40 local people, have just returned from a visit to our twin town of Douvres la Deliverande in Normandy. It is such an excellent scheme encouraging friendship between people of different cultures and language and, although I struggle severely with my poor French, the process of communicating with host families is incredibly rewarding.

We all had a great time and look forward to welcoming the French families back to Axminster next year.

A real highlight of our visit was the formal presentation to the town of a fine Axminster carpet based on the original design. It will be hung on the walls of le Baronie, which is a newly restored 15th century banqueting hall.

It is certainly the first time in my ministry that I have blessed a carpet! Attending church on Sunday was an interesting experience as well, with the Mass celebrated by a frail old priest who must have been touching 90. It certainly put the difficulties of the Church of England into perspective.

Parallels are being drawn between Pope Francis and Archbishop Welby, as both have shown a readiness to cross over from their own traditions and learn from others.

The Archbishop has an evangelical background, Francis is a Catholic who gets good reviews from evangelicals. According to reports the Archbishop has told David Cameron that change takes a while to command consent.

Palm Crosses sent from Christian communities in Cyprus and the Gulf for churches in Devon this year numbered some 15,000 and means £2,000 will go to our linked diocese to support their work.

Honiton Mission Community reports that St Michael's Church is now open for the summer period, and services are every Thursday at 10am.

In the Mackarness Hall, Honiton, a Pray and Play group is being held every Monday from 9.15am to 10.15am and help is wanted with refreshments – details available from MU Committee Members.

As the weeks roll on, it is time to remember that Christian Aid Week this year will soon be with us – May 12th to 18th. At St Andrew's, Colyton, the Christian Aid service is on Sunday, May 11th at 9.30am – all are welcome, refreshments afterwards.

A 50th anniversary reissue of John Robinson's "Honest to God", which influenced British Christianity in the 1950s is announced in paper back at £12.99 – may be ordered at 01603 785925.

A final word from Dr David Ison, the Dean of St Paul's Cathedral: Funerals are an opportunity to take stock of ourselves in the face of death and ask ourselves the question, how would we be different, how would we do it differently. And how would we seek to build a faithful society in the way that Margaret Thatcher aspired to in Downing Street.

Proper property legal advice in Honiton

WHEN you want to buy or sell a residential property, most people would find it easier to use a local service rather than having to make the journey to Exeter or even further afield.

In recent years, many law firms have consolidated their branches into large city-based offices to streamline costs, but Everyys Solicitors has remained loyal to its local populations and has retained all nine of its offices throughout Devon and Somerset.

Experienced residential property legal executive Dulcie Wareham worked as a legal secretary for a number of years before deciding to study law. She has worked at the Honiton branch for seven years.

Mrs Wareham said: "Everyys believes in serving the needs of the people who live on the doorsteps of its branches. We want people to be able to come into our offices in their home towns and to receive a service that is both convenient and efficient."

"We understand that buying and selling houses can be a complicated and often stressful process. So we take the time to understand your unique circumstances and keeping you informed at every stage of the buying and selling process."

For more information you can contact Dulcie Wareham at our Honiton office on 01404 43431.

THE incredible Tim Edey returns, by overwhelming popular demand, to Jurassic Folk on Wednesday, May 1st. Why? Well, apart from the fact that he is acknowledged as the best in the world in his field of Celtic music, here is what people were saying after last year's concert:

"Tim is the best thing we've seen and heard for - probably - the past 20 years! Most definitely in England at any rate! Tim takes our breath away with his musicianship and joie-de-vivre! His personality on stage (as well as off) is gorgeous - infectious!"

"...a quite staggering display of virtuoso musicianship in the form of BBC2 Folk Awards 2012 double winner Tim Edey. A really humble, genuine and decent guy. His command of both melodeon and guitar was quite breathtaking."

Having won both categories in which he was nominated at last year's BBC Radio 2 Folk Awards, "Best Musician" and "Best Duo" (with Brendan Power), Tim Edey is one of the finest multi-instrumental players of his generation in the worldwide Celtic music scene. A virtuoso on both acoustic guitar and button accordion, Tim's incredible musical ear and total technical command allows him to play the most demanding instrumentals and improvise freely in any style you throw at him.

Although Tim is a native of Kent, his mother is Irish, and he was captivated by Celtic music from an early age. You can check him out at www.timedey.co.uk and on numerous YouTube clips, including some from Jurassic Folk last year. On this occasion he will be accompanied by a long-standing collaborator, Pete Gazey, who provides an excellent foil for Tim's brilliant flights of fancy to bounce off.

Support on the night will be provided firstly by Paul Openshaw, who is a fine singer and guitar player with a style all his own, and secondly the multi-talented and versatile chanteuse Sue King.

It all happens at The Grove, Seaton, on Wednesday, May 1st, doors open 7.45pm, advance tickets (up to 30th April) are £8 (£10 on the door) from www.eastdevonfolk.org or phone 01297 20064.

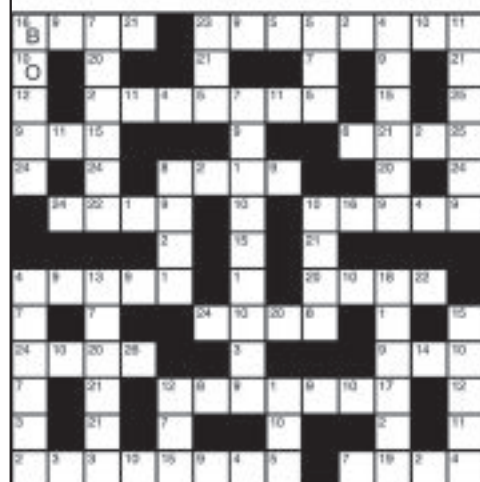

Tim Edey returns to Jurassic Folk on Wednesday May 1st

Top classical and jazz musicians head to Branscombe for new festival

THIS summer, stars of the world stage come to Branscombe village in Devon for a brand new music festival starring some of the most critically-acclaimed international classical and jazz musicians.

Presented by local resident Ian Rosenblatt (founder of London's only international opera recital series, Rosenblatt Recitals), Branscombe Festival (July 26-28) enables audiences to experience leading international musicians in an intimate, idyllic countryside setting.

For three days during the summer, the picturesque Branscombe village will play host to top opera singers and instrumentalists, as they perform in the village hall and church – culminating in a free concert on Branscombe beach.

Branscombe Festival is hosted by BBC Radio 3 broadcaster and journalist Petroc Trelawny and performers include: stars of the Metropolitan Opera and the Royal Opera House lyric soprano Ailyn Pérez and tenor Stephen Costello in a rare recital with pianist Iain Burnside; the Carducci Quartet, one of the most successful string quartets of their generation, with a stunning evening of French and British music; and rising young cellist Philip Higham who presents a solo programme of the music of J.S. Bach and Benjamin Britten.

In addition, celebrated jazz ensemble The Leo Green Experience gives a late-night jazz gig, plus Devon favourite Trelights Brass Quintet performs a free beachfront concert to round off the festivities.

Ian Rosenblatt – a London solicitor whose home is in Branscombe – is a regular supporter of local charities and musical activities, although this is the first time he has presented an entire festival. His recital series Rosenblatt Recitals provides many singers with their London recital debut and he is credited with establishing the careers of some of the world's major opera stars.

He says: "I am delighted and excited that we have this incredible opportunity to present the world's leading stars from opera, classical music and jazz in the intimate and beautiful setting of the village of Branscombe. I hope that this will be the first of many Branscombe Festivals."

Listings details and further programme details are available by visiting the following website www.rosenblattrecitalseries.co.uk/news.aspx

Wells Cathedral School Chamber Choir back for Colyton concert

SPRING brings the wonderful Wells Cathedral School Chamber Choir back to Colyton for a concert at 7.30pm this Saturday, April 27th in St Andrew's Church.

Conducted by former King's Singer Nigel Perrin, this small group of elite young singers has performed in many prestigious venues, as well as being heard on Radio 3.

For Colyton, they are presenting an eclectic programme of music ranging in style from The Sixteen to Manhattan Transfer.

These concerts are always popular and although tickets will be available on the door (£10, £5 for under-18s, £8 for member of The Friends of St Andrew's, to include interval refreshments) it is recommended to book in advance by visiting <http://friendsofstandrews.blogspot.co.uk>, or calling 01297 553163.

The concert is in aid of The Friends of St Andrew's, the charity that raises money to support the fabric of this beautiful parish church.

Jason Manford's FIRST WORLD PROBLEMS

EVERYBODY'S favourite northern comedian, Jason Manford, has announced a brand new tour for 2013 and is returning to Plymouth Pavilions on Friday 21 & Saturday 22 June.

The show promises to feature a wealth of comedy anecdotes, misunderstandings and audience banter delivered with Jason's likeable charm and teasingly intelligent wit.

Jason has had a busy time since he was last on the road. After his opera singing turn saw him emerge the winner on Born To Shine (ITV1) Jason put his new found talent into practice joining Alfie Boe on tour prior to a well-received run in the critically acclaimed hit west-end musical Sweeney Todd alongside Michael Ball and Imelda Staunton. However, his comedy bones weren't completely idle as he enjoyed appearances on QI (BBC Two), Big Fat Quiz of the Year (Channel 4), and Comedy World Cup (Channel 4).

Jason said: "Some of you might think I've had a career change what with all the opera and musical theatre I've been doing lately. Not a chance, I'm excited to be getting back to what I really love the most – stand up!"

Stand up sets on 'Live at the Apollo' (BBC One), 'Michael McIntyre's Comedy Roadshow' (BBC One) and 'The Royal Variety Performance' (ITV1, 2009) have all helped establish Jason as a nationally known comic, a position which made him the ideal host of ITV's reality comedy competition, Show Me the Funny. A second series of his hilarious creation 'Walk on the Wild Side' (BBC One) aired in 2010, and Jason has hosted 'Comedy Rocks with Jason Manford' (ITV1) and been a regular panelist on two series of 'Odd One In' (ITV1).

The show is suitable for 16+.

Tickets cost: £22.50 (Tickets will be subject to a £2.50 per ticket booking fee). To book tickets contact the Box Office on 0845 146 1460 or visit www.plymouthpavilions.com.

Andrew Mellor as Sherlock from a consulting detective's notebook. As night draws in and fog settles once more over the City of London join Sherlock Holmes in the study of 221B Baker Street for a classic retelling of some of his most celebrated cases.

Raconteur Andrew Meller dons the famous cape and deerstalker and, with pipe in hand, recounts some of the cases that made Holmes the world's most famous detective. In this captivating portrayal, Andrew assumes the guise of numerous Sherlockian characters to create a truly memorable evening.

An Audience with Sherlock Holmes will be on-stage at the Manor Pavilion, Sidmouth next Friday, April 26th at 7.30pm. Ticket £11.50 from box office 01395 514413 or Tourist Information Centre, Bath Travel, Exmouth.

The spring market – moving on up?

MARK Goodenough of Pennys Fine and Country reports that the first quarter of the year has not been easy for many Estate Agents but as can be seen from the attached graph sales in the area are being agreed in numbers—it just may be taking that bit longer to source the right buyer!

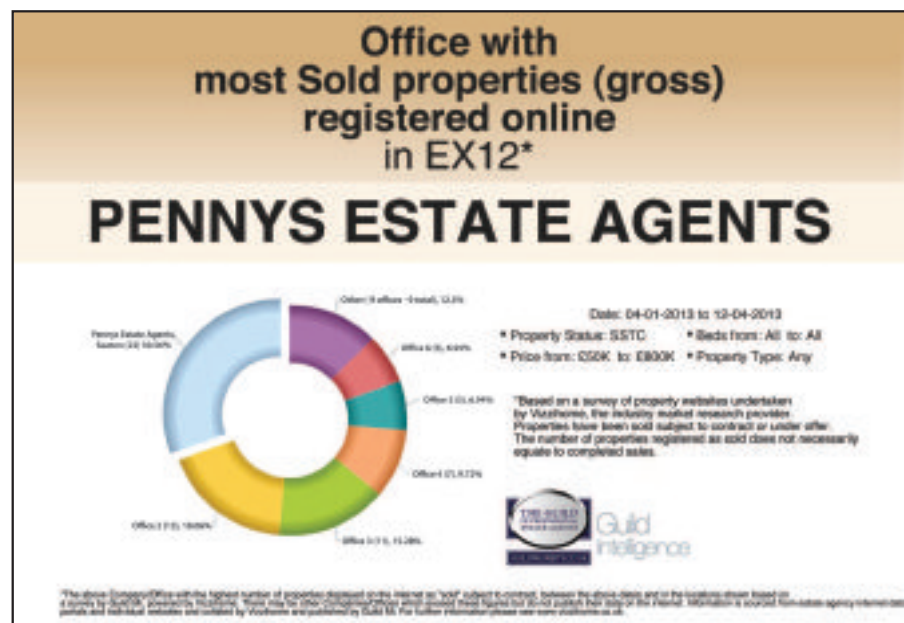

Ultimately the market is driven by confidence and also the ability of buyers to get themselves proceedable—either by selling their existing home or, if a first time buyer, arranging the finance and saving for that all important deposit.

The power of the first time buyer in the market should not be underestimated as very often they are first base in those much maligned chains which allow people to move up the property ladder.

Now we are in April proper we are expecting sales agreed to accelerate with the natural, seasonal lift as (hopefully!) the weather improves and viewing numbers increase.

In terms of values, we do not expect a shift either positive or negative but for a fair and accurate assessment we are always delighted to conduct a market appraisal of you home's value. Tel 01297 22224.

Weddings 2013

An 8-page pull out guide to planning your perfect day in East Devon, West Dorset & South Somerset

Prima Moda Brides

PRIMA MODA BRIDES of Ilminster, known for their unique choice of gowns and the latest designs the business has gained a positive reputation through the years.

The shop has a light and airy feel with natural light, where brides can see the gowns they are trying, through to the large mirrored changing rooms, where the lighting has a totally different feel. Brides have been amazed at the difference in the lighting when shown this aspect. The comfortable seating area is a must for the bride's chosen family and friends.

Prima Moda Brides stock the veils, tiara and shoes from Richard Designs and Rainbow Club.

Designers Sarah Jackson and Sue Hallett, cannot only design your unique wedding gown but bridesmaids and mother of the bride/groom. A new designer to us is Izzi Stockton who is making small and junior bridesmaids now in stock.

ACHIEVEMENTS

Over the past year we have helped raise money with the Rotary Club of Ilminster and Cottage Flowers by helping to organise a fashion show with other local business's in the town. This was in aid of the Breast Cancer Charity which raised £2000 and in addition £220 was raised towards an off road wheel chair for George Pas.

A Wedding and Celebration Fayre was held at the Shrubbery Hotel and all donation from the stall holders, which raised £250 went to the Epilepsy Society, to raise awareness of a lesser known charity. Thank you to everyone who supported these events.

The windows are changed each week again to present the different designs and also colours of gowns, with many compliments on how stunningly the windows are displayed and many brides making appointments just on passing the shop.

Once again Prima Moda Brides is well worth a visit and although appointments are not always necessary it is helpful to get the personal service.

Jean welcomes you to experience a truly personal and professional service, please find us on our web site at www.primamodabrides.com or tel. 01460 54600 opening times 10-00 a.m. - 4-00 p.m.

West of England Laser Centre

Moles, sunspots and other blemishes

THE West of England Laser Centre situated at Nuffield Health Taunton Hospital, can treat these plus other skin conditions by laser.

Sun spots and freckles – sometimes known as 'liver' or 'age' spots - exist where the body collects more pigment, called melanin. For removal of moles, short bursts of high laser light are applied, thus removing precise layers of superficial skin layer by layer until the lesion is significantly diminished/no longer visible. The precision of modern-day lasers minimises risks of scarring – unlike the older version lasers of the past.

Also available is laser removal of: facial thread veins, warts, verrucas, "blood spots", excess hair and tattoos. In addition various injection treatments are used to smooth away fine facial lines and/or to add volume and definition, eg. to the lips. Buggy eyelid problems can also be solved at the centre by a minor surgical procedure.

Our website at www.welc.co.uk provides details on all our treatments. For further information or to book a consultation please telephone 01823 331773 or e-mail us at lasercentre@lineone.net

Flexible Toning

JOANNE Cheesman, owner of Flexible Toning in Colyton, explains why toning machines are the answer for thousands of people.

"I hate gyms, I find them intimidating places, full of toned, healthy people, who spend hours on the treadmill and make it look effortless, I don't relate to that. I wanted to tone my body without all that effort, in a calm and friendly environment but with all the same, great results." We offer two types of toning machines, our multi-tone beds are suitable for all age groups and are even recommended by physiotherapists. The beds do all the hard work and are so easy to use, each programme targets a different core muscle group within your body, even the less mobile can use them. Our vibrating plate machines offer a super quick, high intensity workout in a fraction of the time and this is achieved by simply standing on the machine. We offer all our new customers a free trial and this consultation works out which type of machine and programmes will best suit them to achieve maximum results, by targeting specific problem areas. You can contact Flexible Toning on 01297 552951 or by emailing them at info@flexibletoning.co.uk. More information is also available on their website flexibletoning.co.uk.

Something Borrowed

ARE you planning a Wedding, Party or Celebration and want to 'do it yourself'? Do you want to hire not buy? Then Something Borrowed is here for you to add that personal touch & dazzle to your event without breaking the bank.

I started Something Borrowed in answer to the same question's, when planning my own daughters weddings I could not find anyone in East Devon who hired out glass vases so I ended up buying Lily vases and tall Martini glasses.

You can hire a range of table centre decorations from glass vases, mirror plates and candle holders to artificial trees to enhance the room, I can also provide clear or coloured crystal gel or pearls and submersible diamond lights to add that dazzle to your special occasion.

Visit the web site to view what's available or give me a call to discuss what I can do for you to make your event a dazzling success.

Cookware & Homebrew Centre

MY name is Ian Kendall, and I have been enjoying the hobby of homebrew beers and wines for over 30 years. The appeal for me is the fun of making something myself and having a nice product to consume afterwards at a fraction of the cost of commercial beers, wines and ciders – it's just got to be done!

If you want excellent quality, fair prices and good service, please pop in to the shop and see for yourself the range on offer. I supply everything for the beginner and the experienced home brewer at competitive prices. With my extensive knowledge of home brewing, I will be pleased to advise and supply you with everything you need to get started making your own quality wines, beers, lagers and ciders.

I stock kits to make beer, wine, and cider, bottles, demi john's (plastic, new glass or used), pressure barrels, gas injectors, CO2 cylinders, base spirits, concentrates, yeast, wine, beer and cider kits, seals, corks, labels, brewing sugar, malt and so much more.

Advice is free and happily given, if I don't know the answer to a problem then we can look it up together and get any problems solved.

With excellent quality products and knowledge and experience thrown in as standard, can you afford to shop elsewhere?

SPOTLIGHT ON MY SERVICEEden Garden Developments

EDEN Garden Developments make finding a contractor simple by providing for all clients' Garden Design, Construction & Care requirements, large and small locally. The Design & Build unit of A1 Environmental Services, offers a friendly, professional, integrated service.

Designing and installing all types of Fencing, Gates and Decking, Walling and Patios, Eden offers a complete landscaping service including Lawns Horticulture and Aquatics, either as a package or in affordable stages.

An example is paving where patios can be constructed cost effectively to suits a range of budgets and can be integrated with other elements such as walling or bedding on a planned basis. Paving is usually laid on a concrete mix over hard-core for strength and durability. Layouts can be traditional or "random" in configuration (see insets) and utilize computer aided design.

Business founder, designer and artisan craftsman Norman Brown holds an MSc. in Environmental Planning & Management and has contributed to books, periodicals and the gardening press. Seat unveils the new Leon SC

- Premiere for the third-generation Leon in China at Auto Shanghai 2013
- SEAT's new compact model will go on sale in China in 2014
- Sportier and more agile than the five-door version, with a wheelbase 35 mm shorter

THE new SEAT Leon SC has made its debut at Auto Shanghai 2013 during the Volkswagen Group event the evening prior to the opening of the main show.

The unveiling of the three-door SC coincides with order books opening in China for the third-generation Leon, in both five- and three-door formats. First deliveries of the car begin in 2014.

As the first Leon with three doors, the Leon SC on display in China is a milestone for the Spanish brand. The previous two generations of the car have only been available as five-door models.

Following its premiere at the recent Geneva Motor Show, and the Chinese debut of the five-door

Leon at Auto Guangzhou 2012, the new Leon SC is the second member of the Leon family and perfectly embodies the SEAT design language, adding an extra dose of sportiness without compromising its everyday practicality.

"The Leon SC is the most emotional expression of the new Leon. It is a sports coupé with an exceptional design that also satisfies customers' rational demands," explained Dr. Matthias Rabe, SEAT Executive Vice-President for R&D, during the car's presentation.

"The new Leon is the lightest vehicle in its segment and stands out as the first in its category with LED headlights. The Leon plays a key role in SEAT's future," he stressed.

The new Leon SC is built on the Volkswagen Group's MQB platform, with highlights including a spacious interior finished in high-quality materials and trim, which comfortably accommodates adult occupants. It also boasts a luggage compartment that retains the same 380-litre capacity as the five-door Leon.

With a body that measures 4.23 metres, the Leon SC is a design icon with decidedly sporty genes, thanks in part to a wheelbase that measures 35 mm less than the five-door version.

"We wanted the Leon SC to have its own distinctive personality, and simply getting rid of two doors wouldn't have done the job. That's why we went for a shorter wheelbase which, although it only measures 35 millimetres less, gives it a very striking visual look," said Alejandro Mesonero-Romanos, Director of Design at SEAT. "The result illustrates the enormous difference in the way it conveys its dynamism."

The Leon SC is manufactured in the SEAT plant in Martorell (Barcelona) and is the latest installment in the company's product offensive, along with the other recent model introductions, including the Mii, the revised Ibiza, the new Toledo, the five-door Leon and the Ibiza Cupra. The arrival of the estate version, dubbed the ST, in the Leon line-up will add another dimension to the product range later this year.

Alfa Romeo strikes a chord with new limited edition Alfa MiTo Live

- Alfa Romeo launches limited edition MiTo Live
- Alfa MiTo Live is fitted with Pioneer's AppRadio™ that allows you to connect and control your smartphone, as well as a high fidelity BOSE® sound system as standard
- Marmalade telematics insurance offer to reduce new driver premiums up to 50 per cent
- From £16,590 OTR

ALFA Romeo has launched the Alfa MiTo Live, a new limited edition of 250, that combines safety and technology with a passion for music.

The Alfa MiTo, which has achieved a 5 star Euro NCAP safety rating, has been created for drivers who love to stay connected and entertained on the move. It comes fitted with a high fidelity BOSE® sound system and Pioneer's innovative AppRadio™ system which lets users connect and access their smartphone's apps through a seven-inch multi-touch screen.

Powered by the multi-award-winning TwinAir Turbo petrol engine, the Alfa MiTo Live combines impressive fuel economy with low (98g/km) CO2 emissions. Aimed at 17-25 year old drivers, the Alfa MiTo Live, which is insurance group 9, will also be offered with optional Marmalade telematics based cover, potentially reducing insurance premiums by up to 50 per cent.

The Alfa MiTo Live is priced from just £16,590 OTR with extras including stylish 17" alloy wheels and rear tinted windows. Competitive financing packages on Hire Purchase start from 0% Hire Purchase with 45% deposit required.

Damien Dally, Head of Brand, Alfa Romeo UK said: "The Alfa MiTo Live limited edition is a true expression of the Alfa Romeo brand – merging exciting technology with driving passion, in this case music. Combining the Pioneer AppRadio™ with a BOSE® sound system delivers one of the best in-car entertainment packages around, at a price point that will appeal to all ages, but especially younger drivers who want to stay connected and entertained on the move."

Alfa MiTo Live: In detail Technology

The Pioneer AppRadio™ installed in the Alfa MiTo Live is an innovative car audio system which features a seven-inch multi-touch capacitive screen and Parrot Bluetooth® for hands-free calling. Compatible with Android, iPhone 4/4S and 5, iPod Touch including the latest iOS 6 and Jelly Bean operating systems, the AppRadio™ allows users to connect with the content on their smartphones. In Advanced App Mode, the system lets users access and control smartphone applications from Pioneer and other providers from the touch-screen console. Access to Maps, Photos, Calendar and other selected apps are via the free AppRadio™ app.

From one of the most recognised names in the HiFi world, the custom-engineered BOSE® system produces lifelike sound from nine high-performance speakers including a sub-woofer mounted in a bespoke bass enclosure. A digital amplifier mounted in the foot well on the passenger side includes BOSE® digital signal processing and seven channels of customised equalisation. Engineering teams from Alfa Romeo and BOSE® worked together to match the performance of the sound system to the individual acoustics of the MiTo's interior.

Styling

Alfa MiTo Live is finished in Alfa Red special paint and comes with contrasting gloss black roof, wing mirrors and door handles. The limited edition is fitted as standard with 17" titanium Sport alloy wheels. A sporty rear bumper, spoiler, carbon look dash, tinted windows, and titanium grey surrounds on the lights add to the dynamic features.

Performance

The Alfa MiTo Live is powered by the dynamic and efficient 85 bhp TwinAir engine, an 875cc twin-cylinder turbo powerplant that delivers an impressive 67.3mpg over a combined cycle with just 98g/km CO2 emissions. Thanks to the efficiency of the drivetrain, the TwinAir powered MiTo qualifies for zero road tax and congestion charge exemption.

The MiTo Live delivers precise handling with the Alfa MiTo's signature D.N.A. switch for three driving modes and enhanced control with VDC (ABS + ASR + Brake Assist) and hill holder and electronic Q2.

Marmalade Insurance

Unlike many 'black box' policies, Marmalade's advanced telematics-based insurance starts drivers on a lower premium with no curfews, no penalties and no extra charges for driving at night. Online feedback allows drivers to review their journeys at any time and there are e-learning modules for developing safer driving skills. The cover also means drivers can start building a No Claims Bonus immediately.

Young drivers with no 'high risk' journeys at the end of their first year with Marmalade could see their premium decrease by up to 30% in year two.

Marmalade New Driver Insurance offers much lower insurance premiums by using black box technology to help young drivers maintain and develop safer driving skills, showing how they can be a lower risk.

Clarke triple clinches cup final appearance

AXMOUTH Utd's disappointing season took a turn for the better when they reached the final of the Carlisle cup for the second successive season with a 7-0 victory over visiting Seaton Town Reserves.

A close fought first-half saw Axmouth take an early lead from a Reece Hales penalty but they failed to increase it further as the visitors defended stoutly.

However, the second-half was all Axmouth as further goals from Christian Burrigge, Matt Ellis, Asa Sandman and a Charlie Clarke hat-trick sealed a comfortable win.

Axmouth manager Laurie Forino said: "The lads deserved that today as we have had no luck of late in a season full of injuries that had started well.

"Seaton have again put up a good show especially considering their own injuries and player availability problems, and in particular made it difficult in the first-half.

"We can now take some confidence into our last five league games which we play in just 11 days before we can look forward to the final."

ROUND-UP

CLYST VALLEY, fighting against possible relegation from Premier, came up with the weekend's top result as they beat title hopefuls HATHERLEIGH TOWN 2-0.

The Valley scored right on half-time with a Mike Vernon free-kick special and doubled their lead in the second half through Dave Hudd.

Yet ironically both their relegation rivals won as well. BUDLEIGH SALTERTON were 3-1 winners at NEWTOWN despite having ten men for the second-half, having had a man sent off. All three Budleigh goals came from Richard Higham, Luke Hunt scoring for Newtown.

EXMOUTH AMATEURS also in deep trouble won 4-0 against BEER ALBION with Jamie Williams and Leigh Begam both scoring twice. All three victories heap pressure on WILLAND ROVERS who lost their mid Devon clash at THORVERTON 1-0.

Leaders FENITON scrambled a 3-1 win at home to MORCHARD BISHOP but were in arrears at the break after second teamer Ryan Piper put Morchard ahead. Dave O'Connor equalised before Charlie Selley then netted twice including a penalty and a deflected shot.

Meanwhile, a last-gasp goal from James Hill earned Seaton Town a 1-0 win at Heavitree.

ST MARTINS stepped up their challenge winning 5-2 against TOPSHAM TOWN having been five clear. Matt Anderson, Kevin Pike, Lee Parker, Luke Walmsley and a Darren Bingham penalty were Saints providers.

Both top matches in Division One ended all square. Leaders CHARD TOWN were held 2-2 by SIDBURY UNITED, while TIVERTON TOWN had to settle for a goalless draw against BOW AAC who missed three glorious second-half chances.

Dylan Dare scored a hat-trick for HEAVITREE SOCIAL in their 3-2 win against WITHERIDGE. Brian Redwood and an own goal kept Withy interested.

Division Two champions ELMORE came from a goal down to beat second place BEACON KNIGHTS 4-1. Kevin Mills 2 Callum Old and Matt Atkins scored for the eagles.

DAWLISH UNITED are up to second after winning 3-2 at TOPSHAM TOWN, and HONITON TOWN also won 3-2 at CHAGFORD after giving away a two goal lead. Dan Broom 2 and Tim Genders scored for Honiton. Robbie Miller and Davon Friend scored for the moormen.

PINHOE were a goal down in 15 seconds against COLATON RALEIGH but then hit top form and won 4-1. Liam Ward, Jamie McWilliams, Lee Williams and James Hamilton scored for the Pins.

Simon James (2), John Knight and Ryan Edworthy had the Halwill goals in the 4-0 win against SIDMOUTH TOWN.

Third division leaders DOLPHIN were held 1-1 at NEWTON ST CYRES whose Tom Mason scored, but second place CREDITON UTD also dropped points drawing 2-2 at OFFWELL RANGERS.

Harry Graydon was the HEMYOCK scorer in their 1-0 win over Newtown, keeper Alex Clist was outstanding.

In Division Four Julian Willis smashed four goals for the LORDS XI as they beat OKEHAMPTON 7-0, and he dedicated his goals to new daughter Lexie born this week.

CHERITON FITZPAINE are promoted from Division 5 after winning 4-2 against TOPSHAM TOWN.

AMORY ARGYLE were 2-1 winners against DAWLISH UNITED the Division Six leaders, while in Division Seven HALWILL won 6-2 at HONITON TOWN to strengthen their hopes of the title. Steve Skinner 2, Robbie Hambly, Vince Brown, Tom Hall and an own goal did the job for Halwill.

Capital effort

AXE VALLEY RUNNERS
with Dave Mutter

AFTER the madness of Boston last week it brought great gladness to the heart to watch runners, spectators and organisers have a super day out at the London Marathon.

After the bitter cold, wet or windy winter training months runners were not used to the hot conditions in the Capital.

It is not easy to get a place in this event and many AVR's were left disappointed and had to watch on the telly, but a few did get in and Thomas Woodruff really excelled smashing the three hour barrier finishing 935th in 2:56:43.

Next home was the old master Graham Newton 6,418th in 3:40:23, closely followed by Carol Austin 7248th in 3:44:32. Martin Croad was 15,969th, 4:22:56 and Gavin Warren nearly achieved his target of 4hrs 30mins, he was 19,055th in 4:35:39. Henley Bailey was 22,979th in 4:53:09 and Becs Davey 29,236th, 5:34:00.

Ben Franklin was the winner of the Junior April handicap in 14:21 with Jacob Clode 2nd, 13:16; Ollie Cauter 3rd, 12:50; Max Bowskill 4th, 15:17 and Bobby Simpson 5th, 13:19.

All of the top five broke their PB's. Caleb Sinclair leads the junior ranking with 72 points followed by Ban Franklin 69 and Max Bowskill 62.

A somewhat stunned Dave Mutter was the senior handicap victor in 28:35.

A much improving Tracey Anning-Beckett was 2nd, 30:08; Clare Hansford 3rd, 26:55; Tim Sibley 4th, 22:41 and Margaret Pearce 5th, 27:46.

Sibley is surging ahead in the senior ranking with 66 points then Anna McLoughlin 52 and James Gular 51.

youth football

Back-to-back 5-0 wins!

COLYTON Cobras beat Feniton Tigers 5-0 twice in the space of five days.

scrum down rugby round-up

Big semi-final for Colts as Chiefs season ends sour

Clevedon 36 Sidmouth 19

CLEVEDON dominated the middle section of this final league game of the season to build up a commanding lead.

The Chiefs fought back well as the second-half progressed and, had they capitalised on early Clevedon errors, this might have been a much closer run game.

Thanks to a dominant scrum, the Chiefs had a decided edge in the set pieces, but a makeshift back row and back line were unable to fully capitalise on this advantage.

In contrast, once Clevedon had settled from a disjointed start, their slicker handling and better support play tore apart the Sidmouth defence.

Clevedon kicked off in perfect conditions but the early exchanges had a decidedly end-of-season air from two sides whose place in the league for next September was already assured.

Both sides made basic errors and neither was able to capitalise on the other's shortcomings. The Chiefs came closest to opening the scoring when Dan Retter intercepted a loose pass and kicked ahead. The Clevedon full-back just won the resulting footrace.

Eventually the Clevedon centres combined effectively to create a try for the full-back, which was converted. The Chiefs levelled things up when James Salter broke from a scrum deep inside the home 22 and offloaded for Tom Whelan to dive over near the posts. He also added the conversion.

This was the signal for Clevedon to get into their stride and run in five unanswered tries either side of half time. The outside centre rounded off a slick handing move following a quick tap penalty and a second row forward finished a counterattack initiated from a missed touch kick. The second was converted for a half-time score of 7-19.

The Chiefs almost started the second half in spectacular style when Ben Salter chased up a Retter kick but the ball bounced away from him as both approached the try line.

Instead Clevedon built up an unassailable lead with three tries in ten minutes. The ubiquitous full-back was creator of the first and scorer of the second. The number 7 produced a powerful run to round off a fine handling move for the third.

Despite the disruption of two injuries, the Chiefs produced a spirited fight back as the game entered its final quarter. Good approach work by the forwards, with Alex Spurdle, Ben Halford and Dan Trim making hard yards, was rounded off when Tom Whelan dummied his way over from a ruck near the line.

Two minutes later James Powell ran on to a Dan Retter diagonal kick to score in the left corner. Tom Whelan added the conversion.

Despite being reduced to 14 men by a further injury, the Chiefs held their own in the closing minutes.

The result leaves the Chiefs finishing in a disappointing 10th place, with the joint highest number of bonus points, but contemplating how to achieve more consistency of performance.

On Saturday rugby continues at the Blackmore when the Colts entertain Ivybridge Colts in the semi-final of the Devon Colts Cup. The kick off is at the slightly later time of 3.30pm.

Honiton 3 St Austell 33

HONITON fell to league Champions St Austell at Allhallows on Saturday afternoon.

The Lacemen were keen to put up a fight against the Cornish side in the last home game of the season, and the 33-3 score was harsh on the Lacemen.

It was tight, competitive game and the scoreline does not tell the story of the game as the crowd were treated to an entertaining running game.

Honiton elected to play up the slope in the first-half and during the opening period it was very much tit for tat as both sides attempted to find a footing in the game.

The first point of real action was from St Austell as they probed the left hand channel well, working from the half way into Honiton territory. They won a penalty which, given for an infringement at the ruck, which the Cornish kicked to the corner.

Honiton couldn't manage to disrupt the drive and so the robust eight ended up crossing in the corner for a converted effort.

The home side had made a good fist of the opening quarter but they soon found themselves in their own corner again with a lineout of their own. St Austell turned over the lineout and the number nine picked a hole in the Honiton defence and crossed unopposed to the left of the posts for a score he converted.

Honiton plugging away and St Austell were porous but the difference between the two sides was clearly the level of training, as Honiton couldn't put together enough phases to trouble the away side.

As it was St Austell scored again just before half-time, but Webber did grab a response for the Lacemen as a lineout in the Cornish twenty two did gave Honiton the chance to win a penalty. They did so and went in at the break down 21-3.

Honiton were good value in the second-half the scrum continued to perform admirably. It has been a hard season on the players and that was possible to see in the last 20 minutes as the knocks started to take their toll. St Austell crept over early in the first-half and Honiton then probably had their best period of the game.

They gained territory in the Cornish half and put pressure on the Cornish, but even though they came less than a metre short they just couldn't manage to get over the line.

St Austell cleared and then won a penalty and kicked up to the top corner where they scored a converted try from a driving maul.

honiton

THE Honiton summer season started with only four of the scheduled games due to take place being played unfortunately.

This was due to an umpire shortage. The league is being played in one division with a 'handicap' scoring process based upon the teams winter performance.

The scores the teams start with being: Flamingos 0, OPG 2, Uplowman 8, Signs South West 18, Tip Top Trees 26, Hi Q 20, Howden Hawks 30, Sidmouth Toucans 24, JD Tyres 28, Pixies 30, Otter Valley Dairy 34, Water Babies 36.

Results: Flamingos 41 Hi Q 38, Uplowman 35 Signs South West 46, Sidmouth Toucans 64 Otter Valley Dairy 50, JD Tyres 46 Pixies 41.

FLAMINGOS started their game against Hi Q with a 20 deficit to make up.

At the end of the first period Hi Q were 25-7 in front, but with Sarah Clark playing well in defence the Flamingos closed the game in the second quarter, so that at half way they were just 20-29 behind.

Although Hi Q worked hard, with Sadie Moran playing well the Flamingos were 34-32 ahead going into the final quarter. The final period was a nail biting one as Hi Q dug deep but just failed to get back in what was an even quarter, with Flamingos winners by 41-38.

Signs South West started 18-8 ahead against Uplowman and with Rowan Williams once again providing inspiration for the Signs they maintained the lead throughout in an even contest.

Although Andrea Britton worked hard for Uplowman they couldn't get closer to SSW who held on to win by 46-35.

Sidmouth Toucans and Otter Valley Dairy started the game with a score of 24-34 to OVD. The first quarter saw this lead maintained as the game went goal for goal – 31-41 to Otter Valley.

By half way Toucans had reduced the deficit to 40-44 thanks to good work from Anna Rowson at centre.

Otter Aalley continued to battle hard, none more so than Victoria Payley and so at the beginning of the final quarter it was all square at 49-49.

The final period was dominated by Toucans, who managed to find something extra to finish victors by 64-50.

The fourth game of the night was between JD Tyres and Pixies, who started the game with a 30-28 score line in favour of Pixies.

By half way JD Tyres lead by 38-35 thanks to good work from Maria Gonard. Pixies were not going to roll over though and with Sara Benson doing well they started the final period behind at 40-42.

The final quarter belonged to JD as they ended with a rally to win by 46-41.

TEXAS SCRAMBLE

THE prestigious team game of the week-end, The Founders Day Trophy, was sadly rained off after three holes on the Saturday so our 3BBBTexas Scramble on Sunday was an unexpected surprise.

Although wet underfoot, the day proved to be quite exhilarating and a most enjoyable game to be involved in.

So it proved for father and son Julian and Jake Phillips aided most ably by Peter Clark as they took the day to finish with an almost faultless 58.1.

In second were the almost joined at the hip team of Mark Gillard, James Drew and Rob Willey with 60.2 with Pete Bonetta, Dean Bonetta and Stewart Slater taking third with 60.6.

Founders Day will be re-run so keep an eye on the board.

TUESDAY MIXED

THIS week is work week on the course so temporary greens were in play. Due to this the format was a Texas Scramble, played in 4's.

The first two places were very close, only point two separating them. The winning team were Stephanie and Bob Barnes, Jenny Raison and John Ward with a Nett 55.4.

In 2nd place with Nett 55.6 were Cherry and James Liell, Linda McLaughlin and Andy Sharland. In 3rd place were Sue and Paul Ritchie with Jan and John Dickinson with Nett 56.2.

SENIORS SECTION

THERE was a good turnout for the seniors Texas Scramble, played in dry weather from grass tees.

The team of Alan Pollock, Larry Halliwell and Vic Wood made the most of the conditions and won with a net 62.7.

The runners-up had to play as a pair, but with an enhanced handicap allowance Keith Crane and Don Leach scored 64.25. They were followed by Ken Beake, Bob Billiard and Jim Wallis.

The last prize went to Andy Sharland, Mike Ward and David Ive.

AXE CLIFF with Janet Dack

SENIORS

LONG Sutton were the visitors for the second inter-club match of the year and the match went down to the wire with the outcome dependant on the final game.

It went Axe Cliff's way resulting in a 4-2 victory. Winning pairings for Axe Cliff were Gilbert Cox & Chris Walker, Jack Bannister & Neil Moorcraft, Bill Polley & Nick Povey and Rob Heard & Dave Weston.

On Friday 31 members took part in the April Medal which produced a very close finish.

Two players carded 72 nett, and on countback, Phil Wilkins (18) edged out Chris Walker (14).

Third place was again decided on countback with both players returning nett 73 - Roger Hill (17) took the prize with Mick Tones (17) the player to miss out.

However, Mick did get one of the two 2s, the other was scored by Chris Walker.

Points deducted for Axminster 'no show'

THERE was great disappointment at Sector Lane on Saturday with Axminster Town failing to raise a team for the trip to face Stoke Gabriel.

Stoke were awarded the win by South West Peninsula league officials and the Tigers deducted four points with a likely fine in addition.

Axminster, currently lying 12th in the division one (east) table, are scheduled to entertain Alphonington on Thursday (6.30pm ko) before a trip to lowly Plymstock on Saturday.

The last ever competitive game to be played at Sector Lane will see Seaton Town take on Alphonington in the Final of the Axminster Hospital cup on Sunday, May 12th (3pm ko).

Meanwhile, a last minute winner from James Hill earned Seaton Town an impressive 1-0 win at Heavitree SU in the Devon & Exeter Premier division on Saturday.

The Greens, unbeaten in 10, could break into the top five with a win at Exeter University on Saturday.

Beer Albion's penultimate league fixture ended in a disappointing 4-0 defeat at relegation-haunted Exmouth Amateurs.

In division one Colyton are still in the relegation mire after defeats against Chard Town Reserves (Wednesday) and Culmington Rangers Reserves (Saturday).

Next up for the Tanners are home games against East Budleigh (tomorrow) and title-chasing Tiverton Town Reserves (Saturday).

Axmouth United's patchy away form in division two continued with a 4-1 defeat at Bampton on Saturday.

The Hammers entertain promotion-chasing Chumleigh at Boshill Cross at the weekend.

After a weekend off Seaton Town Reserves return to action with Saturday's visit by Woodbury.

Down in division five Beer Albion Reserves completed their league campaign and extended their unbeaten run to three games with a 3-3 draw against Countess Wear at Furzebrake on Saturday.

Down in division eight Colyton Reserves moved up to 10th with a 4-2 victory over Hemyock Reserves. Coly make the short trip to Offwell Reserves tomorrow.

Over in the Perry Street League Millwey Rise' congested end of season run in appears to be taking it's toll.

Rise were beaten 4-3 at home by Ilminster last Tuesday and finished the game with nine men after Ben Turner and Ian Hall were red-carded by referee Lance Turner.

On Saturday Kevin Turner's side went down 4-1 at Beaminster.

Rise were due to travel to Combe Reserves last night before the two teams meet in the reverse fixture at Harry's Field on Saturday (2.30ko).

■ MEMBERS and guests of the Beer & District Sea Angling Association (BDSAA) recently celebrated another successful year of shore and boat angling with their dinner and presentation night held at the Dolphin Hotel Beer. Thirty eight members and supporters attended the function which found them dining on a good wholesome meal provided by the hotel Chef and team, followed by a fundraising raffle and then the presentation of cups, awards and certificates.
